WEB PROFILES

Ms. Condos is an associate at Clyde Snow and represents clients in various civil and business litigation matters. She focuses her practice on civil litigation, labor and employment issues, business and contract claims, trust and estate planning matters, and natural resources and environmental law matters.

Ms. Condos graduated with High Honors and received numerous awards while attending the S.J. Quinney College of Law, including the CALI Award (Legal Research), multiple Outstanding Academic Achievement Awards, and received the Roger and Madeline Traynor Scholarship for Excellence in Legal Writing. She also participated in various Pro Bono Initiative legal clinics including Wills for Heroes and the Veterans Legal Clinic which provide free legal assistance and counseling to law enforcement, first responders, and Veterans of the United States Armed Forces.

Prior to joining Clyde Snow as an attorney, Ms. Condos was a law clerk for the firm. She also served as a judicial intern to Utah Supreme Court Justice John A. Pearce and as a law clerk at the Utah Office of the Attorney General. Ms. Condos has over a decade of experience in the legal field having worked as a paralegal before attending law school. Her combined experience as an attorney, judicial intern, law clerk, and paralegal give Ms. Condos a unique perspective on the practice of law.
