

Victoria B. Finlinson

Associate

ClydeSnow

PHONE & FAX
801.433.2413

EMAIL
vbf@clydesnow.com

Ms. Finlinson is an associate with Clyde Snow and is the current President for the Young Lawyers Division of the Utah State Bar. She counsels and represents clients in various civil and business litigation matters, with a focus on employment claims, medical malpractice defense, health care law, and contract claims. Prior to joining Clyde Snow as an attorney, Ms. Finlinson clerked for Clyde Snow and held an intern position at the Legal Aid Society of Salt Lake.

Education

- Juris Doctor, with honors, S.J. Quinney College of Law, University of Utah (2014)
- Bachelor of Arts, Government magna cum laude, University of Texas (2011)

PRACTICES

- Labor & Employment Law
- Business Litigation
- Civil Litigation
- Condemnation and Eminent Domain
- Health Care Law

BAR ADMISSIONS

Utah (2014)

WEB PROFILES

Court Admissions

- U.S. District Court, District of Utah

Publications

- "You Asked, We Listened: A Seat at the Table," Utah Bar Journal (July/August 2019)
- "The Bottom Line: How the Tax Cuts and Job Act Impacts Your Business," Clyde Snow Newsletter (April 2018)
- "You're Hired! How Trump's EEOC and NLRB Appointments May Impact Your Business," Utah Business Magazine (April 2017)

Speaking Engagements

- "Sold! Sales Industry Employment Law 101 - Exemptions for Sales Employees," Utah State Bar Fall Forum (November 2019)
- "Equal Employment Laws (Title VII, ADEA, GINA, EPA, PDA, and More)," National Business Institute Seminar on Utah Employment Law (June 2017)
- "Trial Preparation and Tips," Utah Young Lawyer's Division Practice (March 2017)

Awards and Honors

- Star of the Quarter, Young Lawyers Division of the Utah State Bar (4th Quarter, 2016)

Professional Affiliations

- President, Young Lawyers Division of the Utah State Bar (2019-2020)